GRAPHICS.

The new story begins in this GRAPHIC.

Attention is called to the card of Bard & Grassle in this issue.

There will be preaching at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.

Edgar Wilson has gone to Gorin to take charge of a store.

Mrs. Anderson, living east of town fell on the ice one day last week and broke her right arm near the wrist.

There was a bad case of "yummy" on the south bound train last Monday morning. The case attracted the attention of all in the car.

A millinery store in Edina was broken into Tuesday night and nearly everything valuable was carried away. No clue to the burglars has been obtained.

Dr. A. B. Johnson, Dentist of Glenwood, will be at Brashear Wednesday and Thursday Jan. 23 and 24, fully prepared to do all kinds of Dental work; those wanting plate work done, come Wednesday evening.

Judge G. W. Novinger returned from Randolph county, Friday of last week where he had been to purchase fine cattle. He brought home three thorough-bred Herefords, which he has taken to his farm in Nineveh township.

The following officers of Corp. Dix Post No. 22 G. A. R. were installed by Post Commander R. H. Browne, Jan. 3, '89, John W. Tinsman, Post Commander; Early Corbin, S. V. C.; John Rice, J. V. C.; S. S. McLaughlin, Q. M.; W. T. Shaver, Adj.; J. M. Davis, O. D.; Peter Helwig, O. G.

The first cold wave of the season struck this place early Tuesday morning. Soon after snow began falling and continued during the day and far into the night. The greatest degree of cold is reported from Fort Buford, Dak., where the thermometer recorded 12 degrees below zero.

Kirksville will no longer have to send to Ottumwa and other points for spare ribs, bacon and other meats, that should be cured here. D. J. Redding began to slaughter hogs Tuesday, and he will try to cure, at least, enough bacon for home consumption. Mr. Redding thoroughly understands his business, and we predict that his meats will give the very best satisfaction, and that he will receive the patronage he merits.

Turner & Love are moving out of the Creamery Grocery to the Pickler Building, three doors south. They move in order to make room for Whitacre & Co., who will move their entire dry goods business to the east side just as soon as the rooms can be properly prepared. They will then have a magnificent business building, and more room than their present quarters give them. The east side is looking up.

Redmon & Redding have opened a new grocery stock in the Woods building, first building South of the Mill. They will sell strictly for cash and give their customers the benefit of the lowest cash prices.

Circuit Court.

Circuit Court is in session this week, and in addition to a number of civil cases the following have been disposed of up to Thursday noon:

Weber and Weber vs. Milliken, involving the validity of the Hog Law as adopted in Walnut township, Hon. Ben Eli Guthrie presiding on the bench, verdict was given for the plaintiff with damages fixed at one cent. This verdict decides that the law was not legally adopted and is therefore null and void.

State vs. Nash, for horse stealing. Prisoner plead guilty and was given three years in the penitentiary.

State vs. Phillips, defendant plead guilty of assault and was fined $10.

Little, charged with murder of Dick Lawless, in this city, in November last, was arraigned and plead not guilty. Date of trial not yet determined.

PERSONALS.

W. E. HUFF of Shibley's Point was in Kirksville Wednesday.

JOHN M. ERSKINE of Stahl was attending court Wednesday.

MR. GEO. CUMMING, agent of the Wabash Western returned Saturday morning from Springfield, O., where he had been to attend the funeral of his father.

J. W. WILKES, who went to Bentonville Ark., five years ago has returned with his family to Kirksville. Many friends are glad to welcome them back to the old home.

Wm. Haller arrived in this city on Friday last, from Idaho, on a visit to his mother and sister. Mr. Haller has been absent twenty-four years, and met with a glad reception. He reports Idaho a splendid country and is well satisfied with his location.

The Pythian Banquet.

The Knights of Pythias gave their annual banquet at Hotel Steele Monday evening, Jan. 1. The event had been contemplated with joyful anticipations by those who were so fortunate as to secure invitations, and the evening certainly brought no disappointments. Before repairing to the Banquet hall the Knights assembled at their Castle Hall, where a literary program of unusual merit was presented, which was followed by the installation of officers for the ensuing year.

When the lodge had been duly opened for the installation, W. D. Oldham was introduced and delivered an address on "Pythian Knighthood. The address abounded in flights of eloquence, sallies of wit and poetic thought, as the speaker discussed the noble principles of the order, Friendship, Charity and Benevolence. Under the burning eloquence of one so able to portray beauties of Pythian Knighthood, it is not strange that at the close of the address there was but one thought, and that a wish that the day might hasten when "all the world will be a Castle Hall and every man a Knight." After music Miss Belle Fentem rendered the "Painter of Seville, in a way that completely captivated the audience. The clear musical voice, the distinct enunciation, the expression and gesture, stamped the speaker as one of more than ordinary merit. Miss Katie Harrington, though quite weak from recent illness, also recited a most difficult selection in an admirable manner.

The following officers were then installed: Past Chancellor, N. Wilson; Chancellor Commander, J. W. Tinsman; Vice Chancellor, O. W. Avery; Prelate, W. D. Oldham; Master at Arms, W. L. Wait; Keeper of Records and Seals, H. C. Farrington; Master of Finance, W. W. Fulkerson; Master of Exchequer, W. H. Eckert, Jr.; Inside Guard, J. A. Chambliss; Outside Guard, Paul R. Davis; Deputy Grand Chancellor, D. D. Glenn, conducted the installation ceremonies.

At the close of the installation the Knights and invited guests repaired to the banquet hall where the popular caterer, Mr. J. S. Steele had provided a repast both sumptuous and elegant. It would be safe to say that a more elegant spread has never been seen in Kirksville. The floral decorations were also the acme of good taste. Before leaving the feast bore the toasts "Woman" and "True Knighthood" were responded to in a most happy manner by Mr. Ed. C. Pickler and Mr. J. B. Dodson. An adjournment to the parlors, where an hour was spent in the delights of social converse, closed the pleasures of an evening that will linger long in the memory as one of the brightest spots of days gone by.

The Galyean family, with Miss Bessie Nichols as organist, furnished excellent music throughout the evening.

A Social Event.

New Year's Eve a number of invited guests assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Wood, with the expectation of an enjoyable evening; nor were any disappointed. Soon after the guests assembled they were invited to the dining room where a table laden with the choicest viands awaited them, and the justice done to the delicious food justified the impression that all anticipated the treat. The time after supper was spent in plays and bright repartee until the old year had passed and the welcome New Year had appeared, when all turned their faces homeward with hearts full of gratitude for being remembered on this occasion by their kind host and hostess.

A GUEST.

A most enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Miss Jessie Keith, by the members of the Zetosophian Society, on Friday evening Jan. 4 1889. The merry crowd amused themselves with games etc., until 11 o'clock when they departed for their homes.

Those present were: Ollie Weaver, Lena Hunter, Clara Mussen, May DeWitt, Emma Ross, Hattie Weaver, Mollie Chancellor, Fannie Blackwell, Maud Dogan, Carrie DeYoung, Allie Ross, Mattie DeWitt, Della Shaver, Bertha Morgan, Ella Cochran, Wm. Rupard, John Arnot, Mr. Hartley, Mr. Davidson, "Billy" Pigg, Byron Sands, Theron Harris, Charles Foncaon, Wm. Sanford, Bert See, C. W. Haman, Cyrus Bowen, Wm. Shepherd, John Whiteford. Visitors present: Miss Ada Keller, Miss Ollie Thrasher, Mr. H. L. Spangler, Mr. Calvin Paul and Mr. Woltz.

Thanks.

RATS.

Some parties devoid of principle and that can not meet honest competition in business are circulating a report that the Kirksville Mills have discharged their miller, and are not making good flour. Now this is a lie made out of whole cloth, the fact is that the Mills are doing more business than ever, and are turning out a grade of flour that can't be beat in the State, and are selling it lower than any other flour sold in this part of the country. This is what hurts, and we want the farmers and all others to know that we are here to attend to business and don't intend to be undersold or to bring down our grade of flour to compete with parties that are making a grade of flour not as good as we make, and are trying to sell it for a big price. That's why they start these reports. We further would say to the people of Kirksville and vicinity, to ask your grocers for Kirksville flour, and if they won't furnish it, come to the Mill and get it.

Kirksville, Mo. Jan. 7th.

HAPPY MARRIAGE.

A Fair Moberly Girl Carried to Kirksville.

At 11 o'clock this morning, occurred the marriage of Miss Hannah Agnes Williams of this city to Will T. Porter at Kirksville. The bride is the oldest daughter of John T. and Amanda Williams, and is one of Moberly's brightest, most popular and most worthy young ladies. Handsome, intelligent, accomplished and with qualities of heart which render her a general favorite. The groom is a handsome and accomplished gentleman, a rising young lawyer, and one of the most popular men in Kirksville.—Moberly Headlight, Jan. 2.

RESOLUTIONS.

At a meeting of the congregation of the Presbyterian church of Kirksville held on the evening of Dec. 30th, 1888, the following resolutions were passed unanimously.

WHEREAS, Our beloved pastor, Fountain K. Farrand is about to leave us for a more extensive field of labor and whereas we as a congregation and as individuals desire to express to him and to the world our appreciation of his labors among us.

RESOLVED, That the Rev. F. R. Farrand by his faithful labors among us has accomplished a great work and we deplore his departure as a great loss to our church.

RESOLVED, That while among us he has not shunned to do clear the whole counsel of God, warning every man, and by his kind and genial intercourse has secured our warm affection and will be followed by our kindest wishes and our earnest prayers for the abundant success of his labors in his new field. And we earnestly commend him and his excellent companion to the confidence and esteem of all with whom they may be called to labor.

RESOLVED, That Mrs. Farrand has proved herself a true helpmate to her husband and has earned our love and esteem.

RESOLVED, That these resolutions be entered upon our church records and an engrossed copy presented to Mr. Farrand.

S. S. McLAUGHLIN, Chy'm.

C. SHELTON, Secretary.

"Handsome than ever," said a lady in a drug store the other day, as she took up Hood's Sarsaparilla Calendar for '89. Her verdict will be generally affirmed when this popular little annual visitor is put up in your home. The beautiful child's face with rosy cheeks, deep blue eyes, and auburn bangs, surmounted by a handsome bonnet tied with white ribbon over a pink dress and blue jacket, all make a charming combination of color seldom equalled. The head is "cut out," and the monthly slips are neat and plain. Ask your druggist for Hood's Calendar, or send 6 cents in stamps for one to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These medicines have won their great popularity purely on their merits. F. A. Grove & Co. Druggists.

Take Due Notice and Govern Yourselves Accordingly.

I have been in business more than eight years and because of short crops and low prices at which you have had to sell your products I have never asked any of you who owe me for the money; but have always let you have time to suit your convenience. But now you have been blessed with a bountiful harvest and your products are bringing you good prices. And now I am in distress so take notice and help me hold my tempers by paying me what you owe me for I must have money immediately.
